offers her a deal: his help extracting the magic in exchange for the magic itself. And though she ' s not thrilled to be working with a thief, especially one as infuriating (and infuriatingly handsome) as Jericho, Joss is desperate enough to accept. But Jericho is nothing like Joss expects.

Read Book New York Echoes 2 By Warren Adler

The closer she grows to Jericho and the more she sees of the world outside her pampered life in the city, the more Joss begins to question the beliefs she ' s always taken for granted—beliefs about right and wrong, about power and magic, and even about herself. In an empire built
